Loftin forms real estate services firm:

Birmingham lawyer and businessman Bob Loftin has created Elyton Solutions, a consulting firm that combines different facets of real estate development and investment.

Elyton considers itself a back-office operation that can be outsourced for projects in need of services such as:

Risk management and asset protection.

Debt management.

Real estate portfolio analysis.

Construction cost management.

Income tax and wealth transfer strategies.

In his 25 years working with clients, Loftin said he noticed a need for the type of integrated strategic planning Elyton aims to offer. He believes his is the only company of its kind in Birmingham.

The company is at 1710 Second Ave. North. Michael Tomberlin –
